

CALL FOR PARTICIPANTS for the Diploma Thesis Competition

The SNAME Greek Section is now accepting applications for its annual Diploma Thesis event scheduled to take place in March 2024.

- Are you a recent graduate?
- Is your thesis on naval architecture, marine engineering, ocean engineering, or on other fields directly related to the maritime industry?
- Do you believe in your research, writing, and presenting skills?
- Would you like to stand out, enjoy wide recognition from your professional community, and
- Win a significant cash prize?

If you answered yes to all questions, the SNAME Greek Section invites you to take part in this year's Diploma Thesis Competition.

Sign up for the event by submitting the following information to snamegreeksection@sname.org:

- Your name and academic institution
- Your thesis title and a short abstract of your thesis (around 10 lines)
- Your supervisor's name and email address
- A short bio of you

All presentations will be evaluated on the following criteria:

- ✓ Quality of presented work
- ✓ Content and organization of presentation
- ✓ Subject applicability and innovation
- ✓ Q&A

The event will take place in the English language.

A preselection will be made based on thesis title and abstract.

Applicants need to be SNAME members in good standing or have an interest in joining SNAME by the time of presentation.

For more information or questions, please contact the SNAME Greek Section at snamegreeksection@sname.org

Deadline for sign-ups: February 16, 2024
